

Becoming a THDA-approved Lender

Thank you for your interest in becoming an approved lender. The Application to Become an Originating Agent is currently being updated and replaced by an electronic submission application, allowing lenders to apply online. The application is in the pilot stage and we are working with applicants on an individual basis. Please request a link to the Application Portal by email at sfask@thda.org. In preparation for items that will be required, please see the Application Checklist.
